

Before the no-call list was put into effect we sometimes had 5 or more calls a day from telemarketers. We feel so strongly against telemarketing that we put any callers on a black list and will never do business with them again in any form. Please do not change the WI no-call rules. It is so nice not to be harrassed in our own home. We wish the ban would also include political polls and charities.